

Asanga Abeyagoonasekera Biography

Mr. Asanga Abeyagoonasekera is an International Security and Geopolitics Analyst and Strategic Advisor from Sri Lanka. Presently, he serves as a Senior Fellow at the Millennium Project in Washington, DC. In 2021, Mr. Abeyagoonasekera served as a Senior Researcher for Social Impact (USA), conducting a Political Economic Analysis (PEA) in Sri Lanka for USAID. Mr. Abeyagoonasekera has led two government think tanks providing strategic advocacy. With almost two decades of experience in the government sector in advisory positions and working at foreign policy and defence think tanks, he was the founding Director-General of the national security think tank under the Ministry of Defence in Sri Lanka, the Institute of National Security Studies Sri Lanka (INSSSL), until January 2020. Before this, he served as the Executive Director at the foreign policy think tank, Lakshman Kadirgamar Institute of International Relations and Strategic Studies (LKI). His recent book is on Sri Lanka's geopolitical challenges, Conundrum of an Island (Published by World Scientific, Singapore 2021). Mr. Abeyagoonasekera is an Alumnus of the US State Department IVLP, National Defense University (NESU, NDU) in Washington DC, APCSS (Hawaii), and YGL World Economic Forum (Geneva).